NOMINATION FORM

for Board of Directors Election 2025-2026 Festival Year

Election Process

- Nominations are open to all eligible Members of Regina Pride Inc.
- Nominations will be accepted until the Nomination Period is closed during the Annual General Meeting.
- Nominees must either be present at the AGM or provide a written or recorded statement of up to 1 minute to present to the membership. (If you're providing a statement in advance, please send it to agm@queencitypride.ca no later than 7:00pm the day before the AGM.)

Other Information

A summary of bylaw items from Regina Pride Inc. regarding directorship:

- Members in "good standing" may seek election or appointment to a director position with Regina Pride Inc. (also known as Queen City Pride).
- Primarily, directors are elected by the membership at the Annual General Meeting. In the case of a vacancy, the board may appoint a director.
- A director's term runs from their election or appointment until the next annual general meeting, unless otherwise stated in the bylaws (ie: Co-Chairs, Secretary, Treasurer).
- The board consists of a minimum of three (3) and a maximum of thirteen (13) members. Quorum for meetings is one-half (½) of the active directors.
- All director positions have equal voting rights. Each director has one vote in the decisions made at board meetings.

It is expected that directors regularly attend board meetings while contributing their time, effort, skills, and knowledge to help guide the planning and production of the Queen City Pride Festival and its related fundraisers and outreach activities.
